DESCRIPTION

Browsing the web, looking for a Spyder? We have one here for you! This 2010 Can-Am Spyder RT is a three-wheeled touring roadster built for long distance comfort and stability, and with 88,000km on the clock, it's still in very nice condition. Powered by a 998cc V-Twin producing 100HP and 80 lb-ft of torque, this Spyder RT is paired with a five-speed manual transmission with reverse, giving you confident, engaging performance whether you're cruising around town or heading out on a longer trip. It runs and drives very well and comes with excellent tires already in place. This RT is loaded with practical touring features, including an electrically adjustable windscreen, passenger floorboards, saddlebags, and a tour pack, giving you plenty of storage and comfort for the road ahead. This one comes with a brand new 2-year MVI, so it's ready to go from day one. Key Features: 998c...
